[No. 5098.]

For the prevention and cure of SCURVY AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
LEE'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
This Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons has been adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the presence of our bilious fevers, will prove infallible preventive; and further, in the earlier stages of those diseases use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases seemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly safe, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry superfluous bile and prevent its mor-bific secretions—to restore and amend the stomach—to produce a free perspiration thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never to remove a cold if taken on its first onset: they are celebrated for removing habitual constiveness—sickness at stomach and severe head-ache—and not to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and could be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.
Parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this disease is of the first magnitude, as it affects immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative, Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Indigestion
Loss of appetite
Mourning
Gout in the stomach
Pains in the limbs
Relaxations, &c.

Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c. &c.

Lee's Ointment for the Rich.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatsoever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable compound, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the num-

THE DAYS THAT HAVE PAST.

How sweet is the thought of the days that are past,

While youth's brightest cup was o'er-flowing;

When the tear that we shed was the fleeting repast

Of pleasures still lovelier glowing.

When the soul was as cheerful, the heart was as light

As the sun-beams that play'd in the air;
When love's purest bowers were fill'd with delight,

And Echo but liv'd to be there.

Oh! yes, and this thought in misfortune's rude grasp,

Will frequently dwell for awhile, And cheer the sad wretch, though con-strain'd in his clasp,

And frown his cheeks with a smile.

Immur'd in a dungeon—the victim of sorrow,

Tho' hid from the sun's brightest rays, Fell oft it beguiles the dark fate of tomorrow,

With thoughts of his earlier days.

The sailor, when rock'd on the foam fos-siling billow,

Will cheerfully look on the past, And the smile that it leaves on his heart is the pillow

That rests his sad soul to the last.

The soldier, when battle's red flags are unfur'd,

Intrepidly rushes to fight;
But often—ah! often, he sighs for the world,

As he thinks of his youthful delight.

Then surely the days that have past are the best,

For youth is the harvest of joy; But manhood is mingled with cares that distress,

And pleasures that always alloy.

ceived at the office of the N. York

GERMAN TRADESMEN.

We extract the subsequent article from Jorgenson's Travels. It is the author's account of the itinerancy of the German Tradesmen; it is quite original, and we believe perfectly correct.

"As soon as a youth has served his apprenticeship, he is compelled to take his knapsack on his back and travel to other parts of Germany, at least for four years: without which he will find it difficult to procure employment, and will be laughed at and despised by others of the same trade.

In most of the large towns there is a kind of inn established for each separate trade, to which all the travelling journeymen of such trades resort, on their arrival. In some they are provided (gratis) with provisions and straw for a number of days; but men of other trades do not enjoy the same benefit. For instance, shoemakers go to the inn to procure a night's lodging, but they will receive nothing more, except they can pay for what they call for. Copper-smiths make it a practice to go to the houses of the master tradesmen in every considerable town in which they pass, and claim some little assistance, which is given them. Hence, in Germany, some are called rich, and some poor trades, according to the advantages enjoyed by the journeymen when travelling.

The funds to defray these expenses are either raised by a kind of subscription, or by deducting a very small proportion from journeymen's weekly wages when at work. The rule is, to permit no travelling journeyman to remain longer than twenty four hours in one place. If he cannot in that time find employment, he must proceed further. Sometimes, however, the police will permit him to stay a few days longer, if he have any prospects of obtaining work.

If happens indeed, very often, that these men are so very poor, that they are obliged to beg; but whenever they are detected begging, they are in some places sent away immediately —in others, they are imprisoned for eight or ten days; and in others they receive a sound whipping. This foolish mode of sending young men abroad to see the world, as it is here called, is attended with the most pernicious effects. Their morals are totally corrupted; and they become addicted to drinking, smoking, rioting and idleness. Obligated to shift and shuffle about in the world, they attain a certain degree of low cunning, not at all the characteristic of the German, and, in fact, become complete vagrants.

"During the summer, they can easily procure work; but as they know that all this season the masters stand in need of them, they are careless whether they please or not. The moment they receive their weekly wages they resort to the public houses and do not return to their work till all their money is spent, which is generally accomplished on the Sunday and the Monday. As winter approaches they have nothing to do; the masters now take their revenge; they will not keep them in employment; and each retains no more than are hardly sufficient to answer his present purposes. The men are compelled to travel again, and are thus exposed to inconceivable miseries and distresses, which, however, rarely have the smallest influence on their conduct the ensuing summer. Once habituated to idle practices, they cannot, or will not divest themselves of them.

"In the course of my rambles I entered a lonely public house, in a large wood between Leipzig and Berlin, where I have seen nine or ten of these poor wretches huddled together for a night, without either shoes or stockings; some were even destitute of shirts. Three of them could only muster enough money among them that would purchase two pennyworth of coarse bread. In the month of January, 1817, I ascertained that one hundred and ten journeymen tailors, in quest of work passed through Gustrow in Mecklenburg, a place by no means situated on one of the great leading roads of Germany."

Extraordinary presence of Mind.

A few weeks ago, an elderly lady, accompanied by a young female friend, was proceeding in her own carriage on the great road leading from Edinburgh to Dumfries, within a mile and a half of the village of Broughton, the part of the dicky on which the coachman was seated suddenly gave way, and precipitated the man among the horses' feet, by which accident his thigh bone was broken. The horses set off at full speed, and the lady's waiting maid, who was on the other part of the dicky, was also thrown down by the concussion of the splinter bar, on which, and the pole alternately, she maintained her footing, and at last, with wonderful presence of mind, and singular dexterity, moved along the pole betwixt the horses, seized the reins, and arrested their progress after they had galloped half a mile.

Caution to Parents.

A little boy in the village of Halton, near Runcorn, in Cheshire, while playing with a damson stone in his mouth, by a deep inspiration drew it into his windpipe: his symptoms were of course, of the most alarming nature, and death appeared inevitable.
A surgeon who resides in the village, recommended opening the windpipe externally, as the only chance of saving the child's life. To the parents and surrounding neighbors, this appeared impracticable; for cutting the throat, to preserve life, carried with it, in their imagination, the idea of madness. The prejudices of the parents were, however, at length overcome, and they consented to have the operation performed; the offending body was accordingly removed, and with it every bad symptom. It is now only four weeks since the operation was performed; the wound is quite healed and the boy perfectly recovered.

Union of Calvinists and Lutherans.

The third centenary of the reformation has been distinguished on the continent by an attempt to unite the different denominations of protestants into one church. The example has been set by the little principality of Nassau, where a Synod of the reformed and Lutheran churches were convoked. As all the contem-pable jargon and subtleties of scholastic divinity were excluded from the discussion, nothing was agitated but the great point of union, and the means of accomplishing it. Such was the conciliatory spirit of the members, that in two meetings only, on the 5th and 9th of August, the business was definitively arranged, and the two communions are now united under the name of "The Evangelical Christian Church."

It is considered a principle with the Algerines that all treaties die with the old Dey. If this is so, the late death of the Dey of Algiers may lead to new difficulties between America and that power.

lions of dollars for the liberation of his brother from St. Helena.

ALEXANDRIA: MONDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1817.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASH-INGTON.

Saturday, December 13, 1817.

Yesterday, ushered into the House of Representatives the first stage of a measure than which there has seldom been one more long or ardently desired, or more indispensably necessary to the prosperity, and indeed the credit and character of the United States. Mr. Hopkinson reported from the judiciary committee, a bill to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States; which was read twice and committed for Monday.

A resolution passed the House of Representatives requesting the President to communicate whether any, and if any, which of the representatives named in a list annexed to the resolution containing every name in the 15th Congress, had held any office under the United States since the 4th of March, 1817—designating the particular office, the time of appointment to it, and stating whether the same was still held, and if not, when it was resigned. This resolution was reported from the committee of elections, as the most proper mode of getting at the facts they were by Mr. Forsyth's resolution called upon to enquire into and report.

A bill for granting pensions to the amount of HALF PAY to the officers and soldiers of the revolutionary army, was reported by the committee to whom that part of the President's Message that related to those subjects was referred, was read twice and committed.

N. B. No pension is to exceed lieutenant colonels' half pay.

Correction.—The assertion that Mr.
Mercer intimated, in the H. of Representatives on Thursday last, an intention to move on some future day for the reduction of the army, is incorrect. He did not avow any such intention.

THE UNITED KINGDOM.

It is a remarkable circumstance & one worth putting on record, that Bonaparte was first stopped in his career, in Syria, by an Englishman—suffered his last defeat, at Waterloo, from an Irishman; and surrendered himself a prisoner, at Rochefort, to a Scotchman!

Philadelphia, Dec. 12.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the ship Independence, capt. Wood, arrived at this port in 46 days from London, the editors of the Freeman's Journal have received London papers to the 18th October.

The hon. Henry Erskine died at his seat at Ammoudell, on the 8th Oct. The Rt. Hon. John P. Curran, the orator, died at his house at Brompton.

Carolina rice remains steady at 42s for first quality. The rice market was well supported by a public sale, on Friday, of East-India rice.

Letters from Liverpool state, that the arrivals from the United States are expected to be immense, when the wind becomes fair for their coming in. The price of American Flour is 53s a 55s per bbl.; Canada do 46s a 48s do.

Letters from Avignon, received in Paris, state that the olive vintage had failed, and that a high price for oil was expected.

French stocks—5 per cents 65f. 30c.
Bank Actions 1390f.

British Stocks—3 per cents 82 1-8, 83 1-4 1-8; Consols 82 1-2, 83, 82 7-8.

The papers do not appear to contain any articles of general interest, being chiefly filled with local news, of no great importance to the American reader.

LATEST FROM FRANCE.

By the ship Martha, captain Joy, from Havre-de-Grace, we have received Paris papers to the 15th of October. We have made a few translations for this day's paper.

Paris, October 14.

Preparations are making in the church of St. Denis for the service annually performed on the 16th October, at 10 o'clock in the morning, for the repose of the soul of her majesty the late queen Marie An-toniette. The princes and princesses of the royal family will assist at the ceremonies.

According to the news received from Hamburg, under the date of the 1st October, grain, which had before fallen in price, has sunk still lower, within a fortnight. Wheat is very abundant at Bremen, and considerable quantities were still expected. The prices have fallen at Constantinople.

The consul at Amsterdam writes under date of the 4th October, that nearly 600 loads of grain entered there. There are computed to be 10,000 lasts of wheat and 50,000 lasts of rye in the stores.— The stores are full, and the surplus is sent to Harlaem and other places in Holland.

During the month of September 114 vessels sailed from Havre, viz: 61 French, 16 American, 10 English, 1 from Bremen, 1 Danish, 10 Dutch, 9 Norwegian, 2 Prussian, 1 Russian, and 4 Swedish. Of this number 25 were loaded with merchandise of various sorts, 5 with sugar and coffee, 16 with plaster, 9 tobacco, 10 in ballast, 2 linen, 1 eggs, 1 shoes, &c.

The 11th instant fifteen vessels were loading at Havre, for Amsterdam, London, Martinique, Guadeloupe, St. Thomas, Havana, Boston, New-York, Norfolk, Alexandria, Washington, Georgetown, New-Orleans, Rio Janeiro and St.
Salvador, Chandernagor, Calcutta, and the Isle of France.

Werner, the celebrated mineralogist, who died at Dresden the 9th of June last, at the age of 87 years, gave, in his will, his fine collection of minerals to the Academy of Freyburg. It contains more than 100,000 specimens, and is valued at 150,000 crowns.

The Bible Society in Russia have determined to distribute 196,000 copies of the Bible in 17 different languages. In the course of the year 1816 they printed 10,000 Slavonic Bibles, 10,000 New Testaments in the same language, 5,000 Finnish, 5,000 French, 5,000 Samoidan.

Before the close of this year they will finish an impression of 25,000 Bibles and Testaments in the Slavonic, 8,000 in the Armenian, 2,000 in the Tartaric, 8,000 Greek, 10,000 in Moldavian, 5,000 in German, 5,000 in Estonian, 5,000 Testaments in Latin, and 8,000 Gospels of St. Matthew in Calmuc. They are also translating the Scriptures into the Mogul and Turkish languages.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

By the arrival of the brig Hippomenes, in 20 days from Curacao, we have received papers from that place to the 15th November. They contain some interesting particulars of the war in South America. To-morrow we shall give general Morillo's account. We could not procure a translation in time for to-day's paper.

SPANISH AMERICA.

Extract of a letter from a respectable person, dated Guayana, August 26.

Both Guayanas are at last occupied by the arms of the republic; the capital, or the city of Augustura, was evacuated on the 18th July, and on 3d August, Old Guayana. Masters of the whole province, the Independents command the river by very respectable forces. It is impossible to enumerate the articles of war and of commerce which have been abandoned by the Spaniards in both cities. The most part of this rich booty has been taken by our squadron, which chased the enemy down the river, and took from them 31 sail of vessels—say two ships, and all the rest brigs.

The Spanish chief, La Torre, escaped in a light corvette amid a deluge of shot.
Upwards of 1,000 prisoners fell into the hands of the Independents; among whom is the bishop, the ecclesiastic cabildo, officers of high rank, and a vast number of respectable persons of all classes. It is most interesting to know that the Spaniards have lost the public opinion, which they formerly enjoyed with the inhabitants. The Independents, on the contrary, hold it in its full length. Tranquillity, order, abundance in all kinds of things, and safety in all its extent, have succeeded to the noise of war. These precious blessings are the result of the great project of the capture of Guayana, which ensures forever the liberty of all the other provinces.

In the province of Caracas the Independents are progressing, being already as far as the town of Orituco. General Zaraza, at the head of 2,000 men, occupies Cabruta, and extends the movements of his army as far as El Rastro on the one side, and on the other, San Sebastian.

Extracts of letters from the 21st to 29th September.

General Zaraza, with 2,000 horses, is on the other side on the way to Orituco.

General Bermudez, with 2,000 infantry, 100 dragoons, and 4 field pieces, sets out to-morrow (22d) to incorporate his forces with those of the former, and occupy Ca-labozo and San Carlos, where they must be joined by general Paez, with 2,000 horses. General Monagas is ordered to take possession of Barcelona with his brigade and 300 infantry. The main body of the army, commanded by the general in chief, Simon de Bolivar, is preparing to march immediately—the squadron and 2,000 warriors will be left to protect this province. By next December the tri-colored flag will be seen waving triumphantly in Caracas, and every single spot occupied by the Royalists shall be liberated by the liberating army.

Copy of the Proclamation of gen. Bolivar.
Simon de Bolivar, general in chief of the army destined to liberate Venezuela, To the inhabitants of the Valle del Tuy:

Caraqueñians!—The precious moment is arrived, which was decreed by Heaven, for the total expulsion of the Spanish government in Venezuela. All those who formerly devoured the bosom of their country have been converted into faithful defenders of the adorable mother. The Americans have acknowledged their duty, their interest, and their glory—they have dropped the murderer's knives to seize the nobler arms of liberty. The Spaniards are now alone engaged in the struggle against America, and they will soon disappear from the field of battle.

Caraqueñians!—The arms of the republic have triumphed on all sides—from the tedious plains of Casanare to the mouths of the wealthy Orinoco we have been constantly followed by victory—twenty glorious actions have ensured the fate of Venezuela.

All the famous chiefs whom Spain has sent out to domineer over us have been beaten by our troops, except Morillo, who shuns battles as devoutly as we seek
them.

Five thousand men protect this rich province. General Marino, at the head of 2,000 men, is contending for the rescue of Cumana. One thousand brave Maturinians, commanded by gen. Roxas, are waiting for the Spaniards at Maturin.
The intrepid general Monagas, with his brigade, harass them on all sides at Barcelona. The valorous brigade, commanded by its worthy general Zaraza, consisting of upwards of 2,000 men, runs thro' the plains of Caracas, liberating the people whom force held in submission. The army of general Paez, on which the reverses of Calzada, La Torre, Lopez, Gorria, Ramos, Reyes, Gonorra, and many others, reflect so much glory, 4,000 strong, and has kindled the flames of insurrection throughout a great part of New Granada.

Caraqueñians!—Having liberated Guayana, I now cross back the Orinoco, and will soon appear in the middle of your capital with the most formidable army that ever was seen in Venezuela.
The forces of Morillo are reduced to a mere skeleton; the paltry reinforcement of 1,000 men, lately brought from Spain by Cupini, is not sufficient to take the sole port of Pampater, in the immortal Margarita.

Caraqueñians!—Scorn the power of the Spaniards; while we are united they must be conquered.

Head-quarters, Guayana, July 1, 1817—7.

LIFE OF PATRICK HENRY.

The Life of Patrick Henry, by Mr.
Wirt, will form a valuable addition to the biographies of our statesmen and soldiers, and is written with so much energy and eloquence, that it will be quoted as the happiest specimen of American genius.

That we have the most illustrious materials for biography in our country, no one who is capable of appreciating valor and worth will ever deny. It remains for us to improve the facilities which we possess, and imitate the style of composition evidenced in the present work, that sufficient interest and embellishment may be given to those numerous events in our history, which serve as examples for the rising generation. No one can read the life of Patrick Henry without interest, and trace his career of honor without feeling proud that he was an American. He is a rare instance of what firmness and great natural talents may achieve without the benefits of a classical education, when correctly and judiciously applied.

We have a splendid work of biography in this country, which promises to be of the first importance; it has, however, one radical defect—it portrays the history of living characters, some in the prime of life, and placed on the theatre of the world, with such parts as may, if not very correctly managed, give, in the decline of life, a very different coloring to the picture.

Biography, to be correct, impartial, and incapable of deterioration, must be posthumous; and however flattering it may be to the living subject to occupy the pages, and probably grace the record of history, it is inexpedient so to do while we are possessed of materials for writing the lives of those worthies who have "been gathered to the tombs of their fathers."

From the first struggle which was made for independence to the ratification of the constitution, we have a list of soldiers and statesmen who are now no more, sufficiently numerous to form many volumes of biography, the lives of whom would no doubt be peculiarly interesting, and would meet with encouragement. We must confess that we should give them a preference, to the biography of those who live, and to whose qualifications and general merit we may not feel ourselves fully at liberty to subscribe.

Trustee's Sale.

UNDER the authority, and by virtue of a decree of the honorable the High Court of Chancery of the State of Maryland, the subscriber will offer at public sale, on the premises, on Saturday the 20th day of December, inst. at 12 M. if fair, if not, the next fair lawful day, at the same hour, all the Land of the late Richard Henderson, deceased, situate in Prince George's County, Md. and adjoining or near the town of Bladensburg, containing between 6 and 700 acres, of which a survey and plat will be made previous to the sale, and then exhibited.

These lands are beautifully situated, and in an excellent neighborhood; one third part, or nearly so, is in wood, and about 50 acres of bottom or meadow, which, with some improvement, is capable of producing large crops of timothy, a certain and never failing market for which is found in the City of Washington, about 4 miles distant. This property, lying below Bladensburg, on the Eastern Branch, has the advantage of water conveyance for its produce to the City, Georgetown or Alexandria at a small expense.

Intending purchasers it is supposed, will, by themselves or agents, examine the Lands and determine for themselves as to the quality and local advantages thereof, and therefore a more particular description is deemed unnecessary. Mr. Wilson, residing on the premises, will show them.

The conditions of sale are, that the purchaser shall give bond with security to the Trustee, to be approved by him, for paying one 3d of the purchase money with interest within 12 months, one 3d with interest within 18 months, and the residue with interest within 2 years from the day of sale—and upon the sale being ratified by the Chancellor, and on receipt of the purchase money, a conveyance shall be made in terms of the said decree. COLIN AULD, Trustee. Dec. 13.

Public Sale.

UNDER the authority of a deed of trust from John Throop, and Rebecca his wife, in order to secure Hugh Carolin against the effect of his endorsements for the said John Throop, the subscriber will offer at public sale, for cash, on Friday the 2d day of January next, at 12 o'clock, upon the premises, all the right, title and interest of the said John Throop in the undermentioned property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to save harmless the said H. Carolin, viz:

A Lot of Ground, on the south side of King-street, beginning 54 feet eastward of Payne-street, and fronting on King-street 27 feet.

Also, one other Piece of Ground, beginning 176 feet 7 inches from the intersection of Prince and Payne streets, and running southwardly with Payne-street 60 feet.

And another Piece of Ground, beginning at an alley laid off by J. V. Thomas, at its intersection with Alfred-street, and binding north on said street 37 feet 6 inches.

The evidences of title and a more minute description may be seen upon application to the subscriber.

COLIN AULD, Trustee. December 13

Public Sale.

ON the 10th January next, if fair, if not, the next fair day, will be offered at public auction, on the premises, a certain tract or parcel of LAND, situate in the county of Loudoun, near the Gum Spring, and at the intersection of the Little River Turnpike and Centreville Road, near the 2d mile stone, containing 752 acres. And, on the 5th January next, at Mr. Kankey's tavern, in the town of Dumfries, a parcel of LAND, situate in the county of Stafford, within 8 miles of Dumfries, near Chappawamick meeting house, and adjoining the lands of Major Tolson and others, containing about 250 acres.

Those lands are two third parts of the lands formerly belonging to Robt. Lyle, sen. deceased, in those counties, and divided by commissioners appointed under the authority of court.

It is presumed and wished that all who are inclined to become purchasers, will examine the lands; and, therefore, it becomes unnecessary to be more particular. They will be divided into such portions as may be desired; and the terms of payment will be one third part in hand, and the remainder by equal instalments in one and two years, secured by bond, and bearing interest from the day of sale, with approved security.

COLIN AULD, Dec. 13

Land for Sale.

IF early application is made, I will dispose of 400 acres of the CEDAR GROVE tract of land. There is surplus timber and fire wood enough on the part I purpose selling to pay, with judicious management, more than half the purchase money, at the price I ask. The situation is healthy, and the land fertile. Contiguity to market is also among its advantages; it being within less than a mile of Mr. Jonathan Janney's mill, where the Alexandria price may be had for grain. Persons wishing to purchase will apply to the subscriber, residing at Cedar Grove, ten miles below Alexandria, and one below Janney's mill.

Thompson, and by him sold to William Galt.—It is supposed she is now lurking about the district of Columbia or its vicinity.—The above reward will be paid for apprehending and securing her so that I get her.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Saturday evening, the 11th inst. my mulatto man, named NED, commonly called Nax-M-Rax alias SNAWINE. He is about 23 or 24 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and was raised in Manchester. Ned is well made, high forehead and large flat nose: had on when he went away a gray coat and pantaloons, but as he was well provided with clothing of various kinds, it is probable he may have changed his dress. It is believed he went off with his wife, who it appears left Richmond at the same time; she is very black, and I believe, somewhat pitted with the small pox; talks a great deal, of short stature, and rather thick made. Ned is very artful, and may probably attempt to pass for a free man; he has a down look when spoken to. The above reward will be given if taken out of Richmond or Manchester, and twenty-five dollars if taken in either place, and all reasonable expenses paid for delivering him to the subscriber.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 46, Maiden Lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or gripping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known. Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebra or large round worm; the Ascariides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitaria or short fat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and looseness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given in every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Tonic for the Tooth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of

BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS

Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back Loss of appetite Indigestion Impurity of blood Melancholy Nervous affection Gout in the stomach Stomachic weakness Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing their root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring-worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.
